OFFICIAL LETTER

Subject: Inclusion of University of American Atlantic (UAA) Academic Records in the USDIS System

Reference No: USDIS-2024/078

Date: 15/11/2024

To the Office of the Rector, University of American Atlantic,

The United States Diploma Inquiry Service (USDIS) operates as an internationally recognized system for verifying academic documents, ensuring the authenticity and reliability of diplomas, transcripts, and student records from accredited institutions.

Following a comprehensive review and legal assessment, University of American Atlantic (UAA) has been evaluated, and based on the findings detailed below, it has been officially included in the USDIS system:

1. Legal Basis and Accreditation Framework

- Compliance with 20 U.S.C. § 1232g (Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act - FERPA) regarding the secure processing and protection of student records has been confirmed.
- Adherence to Privacy Act of 1974 (5 U.S.C. § 552a) and Computer Fraud and Abuse Act (18 U.S.C. § 1030) concerning data security regulations has been reviewed.
- Verification of quality assurance mechanisms aligned with ISO 29990:2010 Learning Services Management System has been completed.
- UAA has been evaluated as an institution recognized by independent accreditation agencies and integrated into the U.S. higher education framework, confirming the validity of its diplomas and academic documents.

2. USDIS Review and Verification Process

- USDIS experts have conducted a detailed review of the authenticity and reliability of UAA's academic documents and record-keeping systems.
- The technical infrastructure and data security measures for verifying student records, transcripts, and diplomas have been evaluated and deemed compliant with USDIS standards.

3. Conclusion and Decision

- Based on the assessments and verifications outlined above, the University of American Atlantic (UAA) has been officially included in the USDIS system for academic document verification.
- USDIS is now authorized to verify diplomas, transcripts, and student records issued by UAA.
- Any verification request made through USDIS will be cross-checked with official records, providing a trusted reference for academic and professional purposes.

This decision formalizes the cooperation between USDIS and UAA and confirms the legitimacy of UAA's academic document verification through the USDIS system.

Sincerely,

Brandon Martinez
President
United States Diploma Inquiry Service (USDIS)
